

Commitment to Truth and Reconciliation

Mind – To Know

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day, and in alignment with the CBE Education Plan,

SHERWOOD SCHOOL

acknowledges and supports the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's (TRC) Calls to Action, and makes the following commitment to action for the 2026-2027 school year:

Spirit – To Be: Engage students, staff, families, and community partners in learning about the Indigenous histories, stories, and relationships connected to the lands of Ogden, Lynnwood, Riverbend, and Treaty 7 Territory.

Heart – To Belong: Create authentic opportunities for Indigenous students, families, Elders, Knowledge Keepers, and community members to share their voices, experiences, and teachings within the life of the school.

Body – To Do: Support students in taking meaningful action toward reconciliation through inquiry, storytelling, land-based learning, community partnerships, and projects that honour Indigenous perspectives and local histories.

Mind – To Know: Develop deeper understanding of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Calls to Action, residential school history, Treaty relationships, Indigenous ways of knowing, and contemporary Indigenous contributions through intentional curriculum (task, not curriculum as we have no control over curriculum) design across Grades 4-9.
